Dear Dr.

STAT

This is to confirm the telephone conversation we had this morning and establish my bona fides as a member of the Agency's History Staff who has been working on a history of overhead intelligence.

As I told you, it would be extremely helpful in my research if I could spend some time with you going over those parts of my manuscript that deal with the period when you were one of the major players. I am particularly interested in the period from July 1961 through February 1962.

As we agreed, I will call upon you on Wednesday, 5 December 1984, at 4 pm at your office in the South building. I can be reached at [redacted] Monday through Friday from 8:30 am to 5 pm. My home phone number is [redacted] My address is: Central Intelligence Agency, DCI History Staff, 316 Ames Building, Washington, D.C. 20505.
